

PGT

Custom Windows and Doors

PARTNER SPOTLIGHT

Lee Wetherington Homes

In the world of custom luxury home building, few names resonate with excellence and precision like Lee Wetherington Homes. For nearly 45 years, this distinguished company has been shaping the architectural landscape of the Sarasota and Manatee counties, crafting custom homes that defy ordinary.

At the heart of their commitment to quality lies a significant partnership with PGT® Custom Windows and Doors, a collaboration that empowers both companies to be their best.

Building Dreams, Building Legacies

Lee Wetherington is more than a custom luxury home builder — it's a legacy. They have become synonymous with crafting homes for customers seeking not just a residence but a masterpiece. Clients from across the country — and even around the globe, turn to Lee Wetherington to create their forever home, one meticulously designed to their standards and dreams.

As a company firmly established in the local community, Lee Wetherington is dedicated to serving both current and future residents of Florida. This dedication is evident in the level of detail and care they give to every aspect of their projects.

The Trusted Partnership with PGT Custom Windows and Doors

For over a decade, Lee Wetherington has chosen PGT as their preferred partner in delivering unparalleled quality to their customers. This decision stems from shared values, reliability and a commitment to excellence.

PGT's status as a local company, native to Florida and operating in the primary counties of Lee Wetherington, adds a layer of familiarity and trust to the partnership.

In the realm of luxury custom homes, flexibility is key. Lee Wetherington often seeks custom solutions for windows and doors, including 10-foot and 12-foot sliders, large fixed glass panels and various custom sizes. PGT's flexibility and ability to meet the unique needs of Lee Wetherington contribute to the seamless integration of windows and doors into architectural designs.

Lee Wetherington understands that windows and doors are not just functional elements but critical contributors to the aesthetics and livability of a home. PGT's offerings, from high fixed glass windows to large sliding glass doors, empower Lee Wetherington to enhance the living experience for their clients. The ability to capture breathtaking views, maximize natural light and optimize the layout for the best livability sets PGT apart.

What distinguishes PGT from other companies in the industry is not only their product range and innovation but also their unwavering commitment to standing behind their products.

Lee Wetherington Homes values the assurance that if an issue arises with a window or door, PGT will be there to resolve it. This level of dedication aligns seamlessly with Lee Wetherington's commitment to providing the best possible products that endure for generations.

Customer Experience as a Benchmark

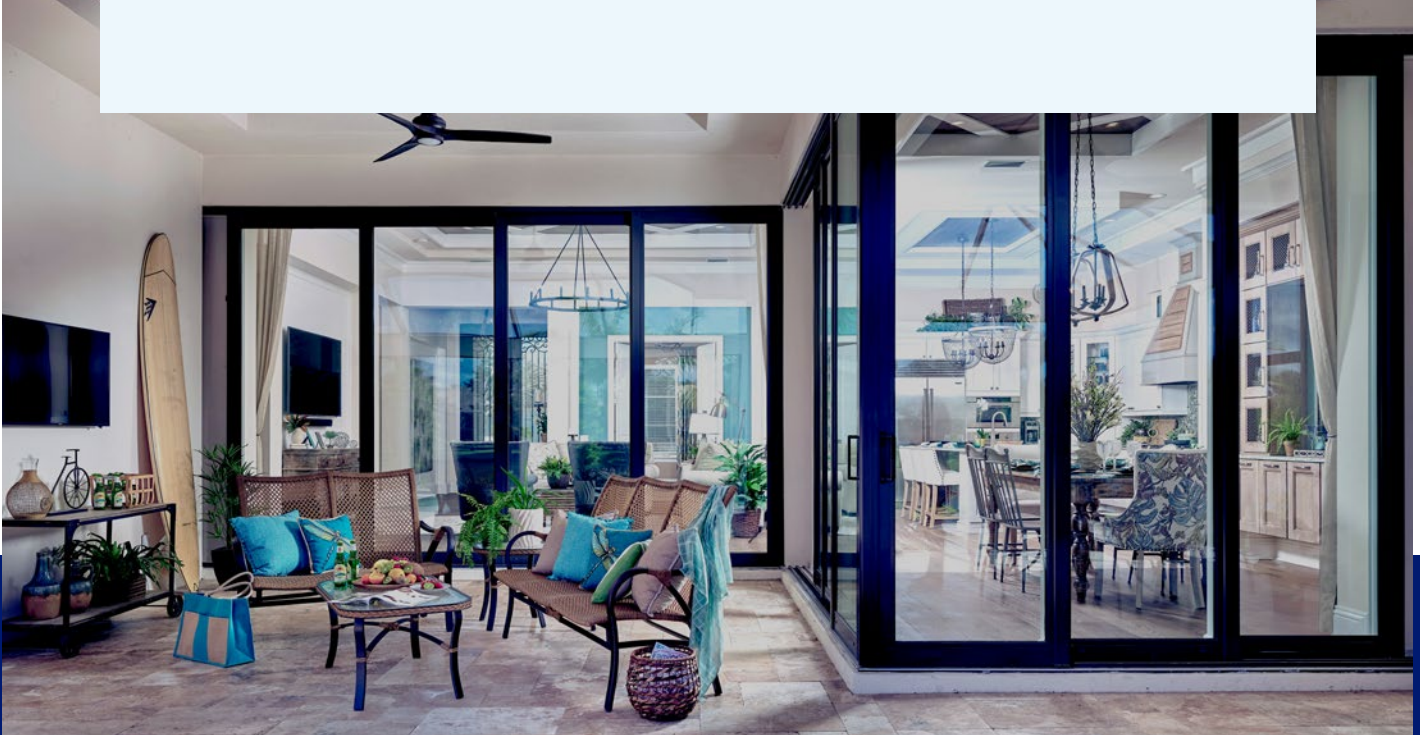

As Lee Wetherington Homes continues to shape the luxury home landscape, their partnership with PGT stands as a testament to their commitment to quality, innovation and the ultimate customer experience.

memories are made and lives are shaped. In this season and beyond, Lee Wetherington and PGT invites you to envision a world where every detail is thoughtful, and every home tells a story of excellence and enduring quality.

Together, they are not just building homes — they are creating beautiful environments where PGT's offerings, from high fixed glass windows to large sliding glass doors, empower Lee Wetherington to enhance the living experience for their clients.

Get a gorgeous view of your own.

Find a Dealer